Golden Gate Rhythm Machine

The Golden Gate Rhythm Machine is a small band with a big, swinging, fun loving sound, produced by some of the best traditional jazz musicians in the country. They love to play a wide range of music, from the standard Dixieland favorites, through the West Coast originals of Lou Watters and Turk Murphy, to more recent standards and novelties played in a traditional style. They are particularly pleased when they are able to fill the dance floor.

- Bob Schulz - cornet
- Brian Campbell - clarinet
- John Hunt - trombone
- Robert Young - bass sax
- Jeff Hamilton - piano
- Bill Dendle - banjo

President's Message

I have not received any new news about the tavern/cafe opening, but hopefully, no news is good news. If they haven't opened, we will once again provide snacks and soft drinks, but here's hoping.

Sorry to hear of Ted Shafer's passing, he was such an advocate for our favorite music for so many years and he will surely be missed.

Last month, we enjoyed the Beyond Salvation Jazz Band with its fine musicians and many, many instruments. Such an innovative band - it's fun to listen and dance to, also fun when there's a pause in the action between numbers, to see what combination of instruments they will come up with each time.

This month brings the Golden Gate Rhythm Machine 5 plus 1 to our venue. Scott Anthony will be in British Columbia playing at a festival, so Bob Schulz will take charge of the band. Jim Maihack will not be back with the band yet and we will miss both he and Scott, but Scott has put together a great line up, so plan to come and enjoy!

See you September 8.

Linda
