Come see The Flying Eagles on the second Saturday of June, that is June 10th, 1:00-4:00 pm, with our goal of excellent traditional jazz along with fun dancing and a good time for all. Next is the Mission Gold Jazz Band, on the second Sunday, August 13. This is also 1:00-4:00 pm, but on Sunday instead of Saturday. What a summer, with two excellent bands. PLEASE NOTE, NVDJS IS DARK IN JULY, 2023.

As of 6/10/23, our new location is the FAHA Heritage Hall, 197 W. Verano Ave., in the Town of Sonoma. When you're close to that address on W. Verano Avenue, you'll see an intervening street, Old Maple Ave., slightly north of Verano Ave. The FAHA Heritage Hall at 197 W. Verano Ave., is just on the other side of both W. Verano Ave., and Old Maple Ave. When you arrive at the FAHA Heritage Hall, park in the area where you see the sign "EVENT PARKING".

Saturday, June 10 – Jim Broadstreet's The Flying Eagles. This band plays everything from slow blues and rags to spirituals and up-temp classic jazz favorites, plus they guarantee to keep the audience dancing. Their style captures a swinging four-beat traditional jazz sound. The musicians include Jim Broadstreet, cornet, Bill Badstubner, trombone, Gerry Turner, tuba & stand-up bass, Rich Owens, piano, Adam Roderick, drums, Jeff Green, banjo, and Mike Young, reeds.

Sunday, August 13 – John Soulis' Mission Gold Jazz Band, is a two-cornet, eight-piece band of multi-talented musicians. Their music is inspired by the music of Turk Murphy, Louis Armstrong, Joe "King" Oliver, Lu Watters, Jelly Roll Morton and other composers and leaders of this genre.

The admission prices are $10 per person for members of NVDJS, other jazz clubs, or other musical & dancing clubs or $15 per person for others. For further info, please call (707) 328-5904.
